

Craig Hitchcock

Regional Safety Manager | Southern California

BIO

Craig began his career with Bayview Environmental Services in 2019 as a member of the Operations Department. Drawing on extensive field experience and a commitment to professional devolvement, he transitioned to the Safety Department in 2023 as a Safety Technician, where he played a key role in advancing Bayview's safety culture and commitment to maintaining the highest standards of regulatory compliance.

In 2026, Craig was promoted to Southern California Regional Safety Manager, where he oversees safety operations, regulatory compliance, employee training, and risk management throughout the region. His extensive experience in demolition and hazardous materials abatement, combined with advanced training in occupational safety and compliance, makes him a valuable leader and an integral part of Bayview's mission to protect both its employees and clients.
